4. How To Enter:

Complete the AI Fluency Form provided.

Complete the AI Skills Assessment on the AI Skills Navigator – a screen shot of the completed assessment and upload it accordingly.

Must choose a topic and rubric and submit the Hack in the template provided.

Multiple Submissions:

There are no multiple Submissions per Individual. Only one project may be submitted. You may edit your submission as per request.

Language Requirements:

All Submission materials must be in English or, if not in English, the Participant must provide an English translation of the demonstration video, text description, and testing instructions as well as all other materials submitted.

Intellectual Property:

Your Submission must: (a) be your original work product; (b) be solely owned by with no other person or entity having any right or interest in it; and (c) not violate the intellectual property rights or other rights including but not limited to copyright, trademark, patent, contract, and/or privacy rights, of any other person or entity. An Participant may contract with a third party for technical assistance to create the Submission provided the Submission components are solely the Participant's work product and the result of the Participant's ideas and creativity, and the Participant owns all rights to them. An Participant may submit a Submission that includes the use of open-source software or hardware, provided the Participant complies with applicable open-source licenses and, as part of the Submission, creates software that enhances and builds upon the features and functionality included in the underlying open-source product. By entering the Hackathon, you represent, warrant, and agree that your Submission meets these requirements.

Please see Data\_Ethics\_Curriculum\_Complete.PDF For more Information.

Financial or Preferential Support:

A Project must not have been developed, or derived from a Project developed, with financial or preferential support from the Sponsor or Administrator. Such Projects include, but are not limited to, those that received funding or investment for their development, were developed under contract, or received a commercial license, from the Sponsor or Administrator any time prior to the end of Hack-A-Thon Submission Period. The Sponsor, at their sole discretion, may disqualify a Project, if awarding a prize to the Project would create a real or apparent conflict of interest.

5. Submission Modifications:

The top 10 students will have two hours on the 19th of April at the Rand Show to make any changes needed before presenting.

6. Judges & Criteria:

Eligible submissions will be evaluated by a panel of judges selected by the Administrator. Judges may be employees of the Administrator or third parties, may or may not be listed individually on the Hack-A-Thon Website, and may change before or during the judging period. Judging will take place in one round with one panel of Judges, at the discretion of the Administrator.

Stage One) Will be judged on completion of all three steps of the "How to enter" section.

Stage Two) All submissions that pass Stage One will be judged at the Rand Show, after a presentation to the panel of judges.

Judging Criteria:

Participants will receive three rubrics, one for each topic, which can be chosen from. Participants may only choose one of the given topics and the corresponding rubric.

Tie Breaking:

For each Prize listed below, if two or more submissions are tied, the tied submission with the highest score in the first applicable criterion listed above will be considered the higher scoring submission. In the event any ties remain, this process will be repeated, as needed, by comparing the tied submissions' scores on the next applicable criterion. If two or more Submissions are tied on all applicable criteria, the panel of Judges will vote on the tied submissions.

7. Intellectual Property Rights:

All Submissions remain the intellectual property of the individuals or organizations that developed them. By submitting an entry, participants agree that the Sponsor will have a fully paid, non-exclusive license to use such entry for judging the entry. Participants agree that the sponsor and Scadco shall have the right to promote the Submission and use the name, likeness, voice and image of all individuals contributing to a Submission, in any materials promoting or publicizing the Hack-A-Thon and its results, during the Hack-A-Thon Period and for three years thereafter. Some Submission components may be displayed to the public. Other Submission materials may be viewed by the sponsor, Scadco, and judges for screening and evaluation. By submitting an entry or accepting any prize, participants represent and warrant that (a) submitted content is not copyrighted, protected by trade secret or otherwise subject to third party intellectual property rights or other proprietary rights, including privacy and publicity rights, unless participant is the owner of such rights or has permission from their rightful owner to post the content; and (b) the content submitted does not contain any viruses, Trojan horses, worms, spyware or other disabling devices or harmful or malicious code.

4. Fees & Taxes: Winners are responsible for any fees associated with receiving or using a prize, including but not limited to, wiring fees or currency exchange fees. Winners are responsible for reporting and paying all applicable taxes in their jurisdiction of residence (federal, state/provincial/territorial and local). Winners may be required to provide certain information to facilitate receipt of the award, including completing and submitting any tax or other forms necessary for compliance with applicable withholding and reporting requirements. South African residents may be required to provide a completed form. Winners are also responsible for complying with exchange and banking regulations in their respective jurisdictions and reporting the receipt of the Prize to relevant government departments/agencies, if necessary. The Sponsor and/or Prize provider reserves the right to withhold a portion of the prize amount to comply with the tax laws of the South Africa or other Sponsor jurisdiction, or those of a winner's jurisdiction.

9. Entry Conditions and Release:

A. By entering the Hackathon, you agree to the following:

1. The relationship between you, the Participant, and the Sponsor and Administrator, is not a confidential, fiduciary, or other special relationship.
2. You will be bound by and comply with these Official Rules and the decisions of the Sponsor, Administrator, and/or the Hack-A-Thon Judges which are binding and final in all matters relating to the Hackathon.
3. You release, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Promotion Entities, and their respective parent, subsidiary, and affiliated companies, the Prize suppliers and any other organizations responsible for sponsoring, fulfilling, administering, advertising or promoting the Hackathon, and all of their respective past and present officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives (hereafter the "Released Parties") from and against any and all claims, expenses, and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys' fees), including but not limited to negligence and damages of any kind to persons and property, defamation, slander, libel, violation of right of publicity, infringement of trademark, copyright or other intellectual property rights, property damage, or death or personal injury arising out of or relating to a Participant's entry, creation of Submission or entry of a Submission, participation in the Hackathon, acceptance or use or misuse of the Prize (including any travel or activity related thereto) and/or the broadcast, transmission, performance, exploitation or use of the Submission as authorized or licensed by these Official Rules.

B. Without limiting the foregoing, the Released Parties shall have no liability in connection with:

1. Any incorrect or inaccurate information, whether caused by the Sponsor or Administrator's electronic or printing error, or by any of the equipment or programming associated with or utilized in the Hackathon.
2. Technical failures of any kind, including, but not limited to malfunctions, interruptions, or disconnections in phone lines, internet connectivity or electronic transmission errors, or network hardware or software or failure of the Hack-A-Thon Website.
3. Unauthorized human intervention in any part of the entry process or the Hackathon.
4. Technical or human error which may occur in the administration of the Hack-A-Thon or the processing of Submissions; or
5. Any injury or damage to persons or property which may be caused, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from the Participant's participation in the Hack-A-Thon or receipt or use or misuse of any Prize.

The Released Parties are not responsible for incomplete, late, misdirected, damaged, lost, illegible, or incomprehensible Submissions or for address or email address changes of the Participants. Proof of sending or submitting the will not be deemed to be proof of receipt by the Sponsor or Administrator. If for any reason any Participant's Submission is determined to have not been received or been erroneously deleted, lost, or otherwise destroyed or corrupted, the Participant's sole remedy is to request the opportunity to resubmit its Submission. Such a request must be made promptly after the Participant knows or should have known there was a problem and will be determined at the sole discretion of the Sponsor/Administrator.

10. Publicity:

By participating in the Hackathon, Participant consents to the promotion and display of the Participant's Submission, and to the use of personal information about themselves for promotional purposes, by the Sponsor, Administrator, and third parties acting on their behalf. Such personal information includes, but is not limited to, your name, likeness, photograph, voice, opinions, comments and hometown and country of residence. It may be used in any existing or newly created media, worldwide without further payment or consideration or right of review, unless prohibited by law. Authorized use includes but is not limited to advertising and promotional purposes.

11. General Conditions:

1. Sponsor and Administrator reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to cancel, suspend and/or modify the Hackathon, or any part of it, in the event of a technical failure, fraud, or any other factor or event that was not anticipated or is not within their control.
2. Sponsor and Administrator reserve the right in their sole discretion to disqualify any individual or Participant if it finds to be actually or presenting the appearance of tampering with the entry process or the operation of the Hack-A-Thon or to be acting in violation of these Official Rules or in a manner that is inappropriate, unsportsmanlike, not in the best interests of this Hackathon, or a violation of any applicable law or regulation.
3. Any attempt by any person to undermine the proper conduct of the Hack-A-Thon may be a violation of criminal and civil law. Should the Sponsor or Administrator suspect that such an attempt has been made or is threatened, they reserve the right to take appropriate action including but not limited to requiring an Participant to cooperate with an investigation and referral to criminal and civil law enforcement authorities.
4. If there is any discrepancy or inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the Official Rules and disclosures or other statements contained in any Hack-A-Thon materials, including but not limited to the Hack-A-Thon Submission form, Hack-A-Thon Website, or advertising, the terms and conditions of the Official Rules shall prevail.
5. The terms and conditions of the Official Rules are subject to change at any time, including the rights or obligations of the Participant, the Sponsor and Administrator. The Sponsor and Administrator will post the terms and conditions of the amended Official Rules on the Hack-A-Thon Website (AI Skills Navigator Website). To the fullest extent permitted by law, any amendment will become effective at the time specified in the posting of the amended Official Rules or, if no time is specified, the time of posting.

6. If at any time prior to the deadline, a Participant or prospective Participant believes that any term in the Official Rules is or may be ambiguous, they must submit a written request for clarification.
7. The Sponsor or Administrator's failure to enforce any term of these Official Rules shall not constitute a waiver of that provision. Should any provision of these Official Rules be or become illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction whose laws or regulations may apply to a Participant, such illegality or unenforceability shall leave the remainder of these Official Rules, including the Rule affected, to the fullest extent permitted by law, unaffected and valid. The illegal or unenforceable provision shall be replaced by a valid and enforceable provision that comes closest and best reflects the Sponsor's intention in a legal and enforceable manner with respect to the invalid or unenforceable provision.
8. Excluding Submissions, all intellectual property related to this Hackathon, including but not limited to copyrighted material, trademarks, tradenames, logos, designs, promotional materials, web pages, source codes, drawings, illustrations, slogans and representations are owned or used under license by the Sponsor and/or Administrator. All rights are reserved. Unauthorized copying or use of any copyrighted material or intellectual property without the express written consent of its owners is strictly prohibited. Any use in a Submission of Sponsor or Administrator's intellectual property shall be solely to the extent provided for in these Official Rules.

12. Limitations of Liability:

By entering, all Participants agree to release the Released Parties from any and all liability in connection with the Prizes or Participant's participation in the Hack-A-Thon and Show Hackathon. Provided, however, that any liability limitation regarding gross negligence or intentional acts, or events of death or body injury shall not be applicable in jurisdictions where such limitation is not legal.
